

Malik Barnwell-Conway

United States Department of Agriculture: Associate Office of the Chief Financial Analyst and Forest Service

Financial System and Requirements Analyst Division (started as contractor at Forest Service and later transferred to OCFO)

Financial Analyst 3/2004—Present

Summary Responsibility:

Leading in the standardization of department wide and agency specific financial reporting tools

Leading in the enterprise wide modernization of the financial information systems

Key member of the Financial Management Modernization Initiative project team supporting Designing, Developing, Testing, Deploying, and Change Management for migrating to SAP to the entire enterprise.

Designing, developing, documenting, and maintaining financial models, standards, databases, and application for OCFO

Work with agencies such as:

Department of Housing & Urban Development:

Multifamily & Single Family Housing, Public & Indian Housing Agency, and Real Estate & Lender Assessment Center;

Fannie Mae

Small Business Administration

Education

Masters Certificate in Management Information Systems (2003)

Masters of Management Information Systems

Specializing in Project Management, Electronic Commerce , and Distributed Systems (2006)

Keller Graduate School of Management, Alexandria VA

BS/BA, Finance, & Communications Management (focus in Management Information Systems)

Robert Morris University, Pittsburgh PA (1996)

Advanced Technical Knowledge & Experience:

MS Excel, MS Access, Brio/Hyperion, MS Project, Visio, MS Front Page, Visual Basic, SQL, ASP, DAP, HTML, Focus, and Power Point