

Kelly Stelmach

Kelly Stelmach currently serves as the Project Manager for the USDA Enterprise Messaging Project. Ms. Stelmach previously served as the Chief of the Service Definition Branch within OCIO/ITS. Ms Stelmach is responsible for the project management of the USDA's enterprise messaging project which will provide a robust messaging and collaboration system designed to support the USDA user community.

Ms. Stelmach is a career federal employee joining USDA/Farmer's Home Administration in September 1978.

Ms. Stelmach grew up in Illinois where she and her husband still reside. She has two children, both currently in college. She has a degree in business from Southwestern Illinois College.