

Lena Lewis

Ms. Lewis is a Staff Accountant for the Financial Management Service, Department of the Treasury. She earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting from the University of Maryland and was selected to participate in the Federal Career Intern Program, within Governmentwide Accounting, at the Financial Management Service. She graduated last year from the Successful Leadership Program, sponsored by the Financial Management Service, and is a member of the Association of Government Accountants.

Ms. Lewis participates in the preparation of the Financial Report of the United States Government, published annually. She serves as a Government-wide liaison, working diligently with numerous Federal agencies to help identify and resolve accounting and financial reporting issues. Ms. Lewis performs accounting, reporting, and analytical functions in the Government-wide Financial Report System (GFRS) and played a key role in the implementation of the new standard 'Accounting for Fiduciary Activities', effective fiscal year 2009. She is also a review accountant for the Federal Agencies Centralized Trial Balance System (FACTS I).

Ms. Lewis evaluates financial accounting and reporting policies, principles, regulations and procedures to meet financial management governmental reporting needs. She coordinated the preparation and issuance of the Federal Intragovernmental Transactions Accounting Policies Guide and assisted with the annual update of the Treasury Financial Manual's Agency Reporting Requirements for the Financial Report of the United States Government. She created new Standard Operating Procedures in addition to a new analysis process for intragovernmental reporting. Ms. Lewis also coordinates the issuance of annual Performance Measures to the Chief Financial Officers, of Federal agencies, and provides the results to the Fiscal Assistant Secretary of the Treasury.

Ms. Lewis is currently involved with the Financial Management Service's new Government-wide Treasury Account Symbol Adjusted Trial Balance System (GTAS), designed to improve the consistency and quality of Federal agency accounting and reporting.
