

Rita Cronley has worked in the Financial Management Service, Department of the Treasury for most of her Federal career. She was a staff accountant with the U.S. Standard General Ledger Staff where she developed USSGL guidance and was the USSGL lead for the Federal Agencies' Centralized Trail Balance System II (FACTS II) project. After two years with the Department of Defense, she returned to FMS as the team lead for the Treasury Combined Statement and FACTS II in the Budget Reports Division. She is currently the operational team lead for GTAS. Rita is a Certified Public Accountant.