

Susan M. Kidd

Susan M. Kidd is the founder and President of DRT Strategies, Inc. (DRT) – a certified 8(a) management consulting firm offering strategy, management and enterprise design services for Federal Government agencies and other industries.

Ms. Kidd possesses more than 18 years of professional consulting experience in management and information technology strategy and implementation with Federal and State government agencies, and commercial clients within the Transportation, Health Care, Manufacturing, and Financial industries. Ms. Kidd has performed in a number of leadership roles across a diverse set of industries and in support of a wide range of information technology. These roles include strategic consulting manager, program manager, technical manager, and change management consultant. She has led a Customer Relationship Management (CRM) practice, managed multi-million dollar project budgets, and implemented numerous strategic administrative and financial applications.

Ms. Kidd's primary areas of expertise include Program Management, Acquisition and Financial Management, E-Business and E-Government strategies, Customer Relationship Management, Data Warehousing, and Financial Application integration.

Ms. Kidd holds a Master's degree in Business with a Management concentration from the Johns Hopkins University and a Bachelor of Science degree in Computer Science with a minor in Mathematics from the University of Maryland.