

Annie Walker-Bradley

Ms. Walker-Bradley is a manager in the Office of the Chief Financial Officer's - Planning and Accountability Division. She has been employed by the U.S. Department of Agriculture since November 1991. Her career in the Department began in the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (now known as the Farm Service Agency) where her responsibilities included developing of the agency's first Strategic Plan, Annual Performance Plan, and Annual Performance Report; developing policy for the agency's management control program; and conducting management control and validation reviews. Ms. Walker-Bradley joined the Office of the Chief Financial Officer in November 2001. She is currently the Project Coordinator for Commercial Services Management and Internal Control (A-123, Appendix A).

In addition to her government experience Annie has over 10 years of experience in accounting, private sector auditing, and internal auditing. Annie received a Bachelor of Arts in Mathematics from the Johns Hopkins University, and a Masters in Business Administration from New York University Graduate School of Business with a concentration in Accounting.

Annie is a member of the D.C. Chapter of the Association of Government Accountants.