

Biographical Sketch
Charles W. Kyser

Charles W. Kyser currently serves as Branch Chief of the Intra-governmental Payment and Collection Control Branch (ICB) of the Controller Operations Division, OCFO, located at the National Finance Center (NFC). He has served in this position since 2002. A career employee of the U.S. Department of Agriculture, Mr. Kyser began his Federal service in 1973 with the Office of the Inspector General in Hyattsville, Maryland. In 1976, Mr. Kyser transferred to the NFC as a Systems Accountant.

ICB performs reconciliations for Treasury Symbol 12F3885 for all USDA's agencies, and the downloading of all Intra-governmental Payment and Collection System (IPAC) data from Treasury. ICB Processes all the IPAC bills downloaded from Treasury into the agencies FFIS applications.

Charles is originally from Mobile, Alabama and is a 1973 graduate of Dillard University with a Bachelor of Science degree in accounting. In his 36 years at NFC, he has worked in the Accounting Reporting Branch, Accounting Operations Branch, and Accounting Reconciliation Branch.

Charles is married to Karen Kyser, who is employed with USDA in New Orleans. She works as a Systems Accountant in the ACFO-FS Division. Charles' hobbies include running in road races in the New Orleans area and cooking on the weekends. He attends St. Maria Goretti Catholic Church. He is an active member of the Association of Government Accountants. Charles was on the National Membership Committee for AGA and was the local chapter President in 1990. He has served in many positions with the local AGA chapter. Charles is a Certified Government Financial Manager.