

As of 5/18/07

Biographical Sketch
Peggy V. Javery

Peggy V. Javery currently serves as Chief, Administrative Payments Branch in the Office of the Chief Financial Officer's Controller Operations Division (COD). She has been a financial manager since March 1999 and member of the United States Department of Agriculture since May 1988. Peggy earned a bachelor's degree in Business Administration from the University of South Florida, Tampa, Florida. She also has a master's degree in Public Administration from Atlanta University, Atlanta, Georgia. Peggy earned a financial certification with the Association of Government Accountants in 1998 as a Certified Government Financial Manager and 2007 Lean Six Sigma Greenbelt Certification.

Peggy has held several positions at COD/National Finance Center; She seeks to improve, automate and streamline operations through innovative and best practices philosophies. A few of her accomplishments include: On-site Project Manager for the 2007 Lean Six Sigma Transactional Process, 2008 Implementation of the Administrative Electronic Payments Initiative for Telephone and Utilities using Enterprise Content Management, 2008 Oversight and Winner of the Utilities and Telephones A-76 Competitive Sourcing Solicitation, 2009 Author of Relocation Resource Center Business Case with cost savings to the USDA and a new business line. .

Peggy credits her staff for accepting challenges and being dedicated to ensure quality Customer Service and efficient payment processes. She manages a diverse staff responsible for administrative payment processing of the USDA's Integrated Acquisition, Telephones and Utilities, and Travel Systems. She has implemented payroll/personnel systems, served as implementation team lead for the Administrative Information Modernization Systems Development project, directed administrative, financial and property systems implementations, documentation, training, software testing, marketing, and help desk support.

Peggy keeps very busy with home, church, personal and professional organizations. She currently serves on the National Executive Committee for the Association of Government Accountants. She is involved in community activities and serves on the board of New Orleans Charter Schools for Project Grad and teaches Adult Sunday School at her church.