

Al Baker bio

Al Baker is a Management & Program Analyst working in the Financial Management Branch of International Technology Services at the USDA.

After several years with Price Waterhouse in Toronto, Al was a consultant for 14 years specializing in Activity-Based Costing systems having designed, implemented, and maintained Cost Management models for many clients in the USA, Canada, and abroad. Al joined USDA in 2009 from SAP where he was a Sr. Principal Consultant specializing in Cost Management. Al also has broad experience in the Business Intelligence arena serving as consultant, instructor and subject matter expert for many years.

Al lives in Mesa, Arizona with his wife and 3 daughters; having moved there 5 years ago after living in Toronto, Canada.