

Lynette K. Cockrell biography

Lynette K. Cockrell, is the Director, of the Financial Audit Operations division in Kansas City, Missouri. She graduated from William Jewell College in 1979, and began federal employment in 1980 with the General Accounting Office (now the Government Accountability Office). Lynette left GAO in 1982 to work with a local CPA firm and obtain her CPA license. In 1986, Lynette returned to federal employment with USDA OIG's Financial Management Staff (which recently became Financial Audit Operations). Since then, Lynette has worked as a Senior Auditor and then an ARIG with OIG, primarily in the financial audit arena. She and her husband Mike live in rural Belton MO.