

Dale Theurer

Dale Theurer is the Debt and Cash Management Team Leader with the Department of Agriculture (USDA), Office of the Chief Financial Officer's (OCFO) Credit, Travel, and Grants Policy Division. He is responsible for coordinating Departmental (1) improper payments policy for USDA's 16 high risk program with outlay of $72 billion (2) debt management policy for USDA's $113 billion in gross loan/receivables; and (3) cash management policy for USDA's $26 billion in collections and $115 billion in outlays.

Prior to the Office of the Chief Financial Officer, Dale worked for the Forest Service and Agricultural Marketing Service. Prior to working for USDA, he served as an officer in the U.S. Air Force. Dale is a graduate of Ball State University, Muncie, Indiana, with a Masters degree in Accounting and a Bachelors degree in Business Education.