

Steven M. Helmrich
Director
Financial Management Division

Mr. Helmrich was born in South Williamsport, Pennsylvania, and is a graduate of Pennsylvania State University.

Mr. Helmrich entered Government Civil Service in 1974 with the U.S. Department of Navy. During his tenure with Navy, Mr. Helmrich occupied several senior financial management positions including:

- the Navy's Accounting Officer in London, England and,
- Head of Financial Operations, in the Navy Comptroller's office.

In 1988, Steve accepted a position with NASA and served as the Senior Program Budget Analyst for the launch and landing operations of the Space Shuttle under NASA's manned space flight program.

He accepted a Senior Staff Accountant position with the Office of the Secretary, Department of Transportation, in 1990.

Steve joined ARS in 1992 and currently serves as the Director, Financial Management Division and Chief Financial Officer for the Research, Education, and Economics (REE) mission area.